

Contextualising delivery of the Level 2 Certificate in Adult Learner Support for local government

Who is the certificate for?

Course Content

Unit One: working in the sector

Unit Two: supporting learners

Unit Three:

- literacy
- numeracy
- ESOL

Our Project

- Develop and deliver courses contextualised for local government
- Pilot the literacy and numeracy option in different regions
- Evaluate their success and make recommendations for the next steps
- Disseminate

Contextualisation?

- Synergy and links to support the Employers' Organisation strategy and GO Award for local government, including contextualised Employer Toolkit
- Synergy with other initiatives

Teaching and learning materials:

- providing data on Skills for Life development need in local authorities
- making links to performance indicators
- use of workplace documents
- simple local government case studies in pre-reading pack tasks

Approach

Delivery model:

- Information, advice and guidance session
- Referral links in place
- Blocks of two or three days per unit

Delivery

HR Managers, other managers, learning and development staff,
supervisors, union learning representatives

- Newcastle upon Tyne City Council
- Crawley Borough Council
- Oxford City Council

The Participants

- 33 participants in total
- Newcastle upon Tyne: literacy and numeracy option
- Crawley: literacy option
- Oxford City Council: numeracy option

Sue Batt

Director of Regional Development

07970 150848

s.batt@lancaster.ac.uk

Sandra Pegum

Director of Professional Development

07966 168087

s.pegum@lancaster.ac.uk

LANCASTER
UNIVERSITY

